

WISTAR'S BALM OF WILD CHERRY.

This excellent remedy for Coughs, Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, etc., bids fair to become one of the most popular medicines before the public. Its sale is rapidly increasing, and from the manner our friends and others who have used it, speak in its praise, we can confidently recommend it to the afflicted as the very best remedy they can anywhere obtain for the diseases above enumerated. We understand the genuine is for sale in Fayette, by Dr. Wm. R. Snellson. Also, by R. P. Hanenkamp, Glasgow.

JEW DAVID'S OR HEBREW PLASTER.

This popular plaster has been known to cure Rheumatism permanently in three weeks, and Gout in half that time, by removing local inflammation from the muscles and ligaments of the joints. There is not a family in the United States that would consent to be without the plaster a single day if they knew its value.

The genuine is for sale by Dr. Wm. R. Snellson, Fayette. Also by R. P. Hanenkamp, Glasgow.

See advertisement in another column of this paper.

MARRIED—On the 18th inst., by the Rev. Thomas Johnson, Mr. JAMES M. CHORN, of the city of Booneville, to Miss NANCY JANE, daughter of Owen Rawlins, Esq., of Howard County, Mo.

The priesters were not sufficient on this interesting occasion, which is forgotten to insure the happy couple happiness so long as life lasts.

On the 11th inst., by the Rev. Mr. Caples, JOHN Y. STERNE, Esq., to Mrs. MARY BLACKWELL, all of this vicinity.

NEW SERIES OF THE Congressional Globe and Appendix.

The undersigned originated the mode of Journalizing the proceedings of Congress, which presented them entire. Their publication was the first and only one that gave each successive step in every measure in both branches of Congress; a brief of all the debates; every important vote; and an Appendix, including at full length all the revised speeches delivered during the session. The work thus conducted by them is a most perfect political history. The Senators from the States and the Representatives from every section of the Union bring with them into Congress a knowledge of the feelings, sentiments, and interests of their several constituencies. Public opinion and the public information, as it exists among those they represent, are embodied by them; and in the crucible of Congress the wisdom of our times is brought to its test, and is there concentrated, in directing the political movements of the whole country. The impulses thus given through Congress from every quarter react upon the nation as a whole, and all its component parts made to move in co-operation. The press cannot be more usefully employed than in condensing and again spreading abroad the intelligence of our free country, tending to such happy results through our almost miraculously adjusted State and National institutions.

Having identified ourselves with the plan of advancing the usefulness of Congress by publishing full and impartial reports, and having a large mass of the Congressional Globe and Appendix, issued during the last ten years, which would be impaired in value to us and utility to the public if the work were discontinued, we have a double motive to prompt us to extend it through a new series. We are resolved to do this to give it permanence, and to hand it down to successors as a standard work, worthy of being maintained and improved. We shall enter upon our burdened by any associate labors of the press; and, thus unencumbered, shall hope to make the new series a step in advance of the former in all points of execution. With a view to accomplish this, we shall be (one or the other) always in attendance in Congress—will compare the manuscript of our own reporters with the daily reports of the city papers—correct all by our own observation and knowledge of the proceedings; and in important matters, where that will not assure us of the fidelity of the reports, we will procure the aid of the members themselves, to obtain the exact scope of their remarks. The work, thus authenticated, will be stereotyped, which is a guaranty that we will make it as perfect as it is possible for us to make it, as we would not incur the expense of stereotyping it, if we did not feel confident of its superiority over all works of the kind which have been or are likely to be published. Stereotyping the work will enable us to supply lost or mutilated numbers, which we will do, without making any charge for them.

The Congressional Globe is made up of the daily proceedings of the two Houses of Congress. The speeches of the members are condensed, to bring them into a readable length. All the resolutions offered; or motions made, are given in the mover's own words; and the year and name on all the important questions. It is printed with small type—brevier and nonpareil—on a double royal sheet, in quarto form each number containing sixteen royal quarto pages.

The Appendix is made up of the President's annual message, the reports of the principal officers of the Government that accompany it, and all the long speeches of members of Congress, written out or revised by themselves. It is printed in the same form as the Congressional Globe, and usually makes about the same number of pages.

We print the numbers as fast as the proceedings of Congress furnish enough matter for a number. During the first month or six weeks of a session, there is fairly more business done than will make one number of the Congressional Globe and one number of the Appendix a week; but during the remainder of a session, there is usually sufficient matter for two or three numbers of each every week. The next session will be a long one, and it is supposed will be unusually interesting; therefore, we calculate that the Congressional Globe and Appendix will each make near one thousand and large quarto pages, printed in small type—brevier and nonpareil. We furnish complete indexes to both at the end of a session.

We have on hand the Congressional Globe and Appendix for the last twelve sessions of Congress, of which five were long and seven were short sessions. The Congressional Globe and Appendix for each session are bound together in plain but excellent binding, with Russia backs and corners. Our prices for them, thus bound together, are $3 a volume for a short, and $5 a volume for a long session, making $45 for a full set. Those who want the back volumes should apply for them immediately, as they are in demand. The last Congress subscribed for two hundred and twenty-six sets; and it is probable that the next will subscribe for at least as many more, as the proceedings of Congress for the last eight years cannot be procured from any other source, Gales & Seaton having stopped printing their Register of Debates in 1837. A few hundred copies of the first volume is all we have on hand.

The next session of Congress will be a long one, and, therefore, the Congressional Globe and Appendix should be $2 for the session, which is the price we charge for the unbound numbers of the past long sessions; but we have concluded to reduce the price, as follows, until the first day of next January, after which time the Congressional Globe and Appendix will each be $2 for the session, and no deduction will be made on account of the number of copies taken.

TERMS.
For one copy of the Congressional Globe $1 50
For one copy of the Appendix 1 50
For four copies of either, or part of both 5 00
For 25 copies of either, or part of both 25 00
The money may be remitted by mail at our risk. It should be here by the 7th of December, at farthest, to procure all the numbers promptly.

Proprietors of newspapers who copy this Prospectus, and send us one copy of their paper containing it, shall have their names entered on our books for one copy of the Congressional Globe and Appendix during the session. Our prices for these papers are so low that we cannot afford to credit them out; therefore, we cannot need consume his time in writing for them and not sending the money.

Stop the Runaways.

MY NAME BEVERLY and his wife, RACHEL, left home on last Monday night, without any known cause, and having had an angry word spoken to either of them; hence I presume their object is to make for a free State, possibly aided by some abolitionist. The fellow is about 30 years old, rather below the average height, well set and will weigh from 160 to 180 lbs; not very black, has some defect on one front tooth, the others rather broad, mild countenance, pleasant spoken and has a scar on his hand and wrist from an old scald, (the right I think) and is a little hard of hearing; his clothes not particularly known, as he perhaps has more than one suit; I think, however, his coat is either full red or blue cloth, perhaps he may have both with him.

The woman is about 40 years old, dark colored, thin visage, large eyes, slender form, about the average height, intelligent and managing; her clothing I have a very imperfect knowledge of, as she has a good supply most of which are at home; she may have a cloak with her.

I will give a liberal reward for the apprehension and delivery of said slaves to me, or to have them secured so I can get them again.

NOTICE

IS HEREBY GIVEN, to all who may have claims against James Shepherd, dec'd., that if they are presented to the undersigned, properly authenticated, they will be paid. I hope those having claims against him, will present them soon, as I am anxious to settle all his debts.

TO THE FARMERS.

DURING the approaching season, we will ship, for our customers, on their account, HEMP and WHEAT, and have the same sold in the best market. The actual expenses, only, will be charged, and the whole of the probable value, advanced, in cash, to those who may desire it. We entertain the opinion that these articles will make good returns, and believe it the interest of farmers to pursue the course here indicated. Persons wishing to realize the whole value of their crops are invited to call.
